

Interactive, hands-on career exploration for thousands of high school freshmen

Did you know that a majority of high school dropouts occur between the freshmen and sophomore year? That's why the Academies of Nashville career exploration fair is so important.

More than 300 businesses and organizations are needed to showcase local careers and post-secondary options to students.

Register now to get your company or organization involved or forward to someone you know who would be interested in having a booth at this year's My Future. My Way. Career Exploration Fair.
